	05-04-2005 Shri B.R. Ghosh, counsel for the petitioners. Shri Yashwant Singh, Govt. Advocate for the State. Heard. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that according to the press report some settlement has been arrived at between the villagers. In case settlement has been arrived at between the villagers and the authorities concerned regarding the compensation, it is well and good. In this petition it is stated that the petitioners are entitled for compensation of Rs.80,000/- to Rs.2,00,000/- but no details have been given about the quality of land and the price of adjoining near by areas etc. The petition is vague. Under the circumstances, learned counsel for the petitioners prayed that the petitioners may be permitted to make a detailed representation before the competent authority collectively or individually. The prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioners is not opposed by learned State counsel. Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and material on record, it is directed that in case the grievance remain subsists the petitioners may
